Asking Price: €568,000.00 For Sale Ref: 29

This magnificent detached villa has all you could want from a family home, but with a few added extras. The list goes on and on so viewing is essential. This property is located in one of the best locations in the charming town of Alhaurin el Grande. With the forest back drop, fabulous valley and mountain views but still only five minutes to the town centre this definitely ticks the boxes. As you enter the property through the large automated entrance gate you get the full scale of this wonderful villa. There is an exceptional imprinted driveway sweeping down to the lower covered parking area, and then on to the front side of the villa with yet more covered parking. The upper level has a large wooden entrance door that leads you into the main open plan lounge/dining area which is fully tiled throughout with granite/marble flooring. There is also a beautiful feature fireplace that has double fronted glass panels, great for those chilly winter evenings. There is also an additional lounge cove where you can really relax the night away. Patio doors also open out on to a raised terrace area overlooking the wonderful gardens

The light open kitchen has been fully modernised and fully fitted out using top quality materials and features modern appliances and full granite work surfaces.

On this level there are also three bedrooms all very large and all with fitted wardrobes. The main bedroom also has an en suite shower room that is fully tiled and complete with modern multi jet shower unit. There is one more additional family bathroom also fully tiled.

There is a large marble staircase with large feature windows to the
