

2 bedroom Rustic Style Finca in Coin

Asking Price: €435,000.00

For Sale Ref: 50

This is the opportunity to purchase a traditional style country villa set amongst 12000 metres of terraced land and with much further potential. Located in the area of Coin you have the benefit of a peaceful location and stunning views but with the advantage of being only minutes away from the centre of Guaro and the town of Coin.

As you approach the gated entrance from the main Coin to Ronda road the driveway leads up to the main house entrance. First impressions are crucial to any property and the initial reaction to this villa is very pleasing and this gets better the further you look. The main house has been constructed to create a traditional country style cottage with large wood beams and tongue and grooved pitched wood ceilings, no expense has been spared to create this style of home. Built to an open plan layout this includes a fully fitted cottage style kitchen with large granite work surfaces and larder storage. Fully tiled floors add to the character of this property and again only high quality materials have been used. The lounge area with log burning fireplace again is stunning and the use of beams and wood just highlight its character and charm. There are 2 good sized bedrooms, one with double doors leading out to the terrace with stunning unspoilt views of the valley. Both have built in wooden wardrobes and again they benefit from the beautiful décor. Another plus here is access to the ample roof storage area that is generally overlooked in a Spanish property. A tiled shower room and toilet complete the interior of the house.
