When looking for a property most of us set out criteria of things we would like, some of us get close to achieving these but rarely does a property come along that will fulfil everything and then some more.

This unique family villa is situated in the campo area of the village of Coin, the location itself is ideal for the country lover but with the benefit of being 5 minutes to the town centre.

From the moment you enter this exceptional villa the surprises start, the owners have created not just a beautiful home but have managed to cover every aspect in the design. The quality of furnishings and unique style of the villa just add to its appeal, when we tell you that everything from furnishings to sound systems is included in the sale of the villa this appeal grows.

The upper level of the villa is of a large open plan design, everything has been thought of with a relaxing lounge area and large windows allowing natural lighting. There is an impressive fully incorporated stainless steel professional kitchen that any chef would love to own. The large main lounge features a wonderful wood burning fireplace, sunken spotlights, impressive ceiling fans and Patio doors lead out to the sun terrace overlooking the gardens.

The lower floor is accessed by a spiral stairway from the upper level. This takes you to the 3 bedrooms and again design and quality stand out. All bedrooms include fully fitted wardrobes and again all the furnishings. The master bedroom features an en suite bathroom with huge bath and walk in shower area. The second
